

015 Cubo Design Alberto Basaglia Natalia Rota Nodari

Nothing should stop us from thinking of the 015 Cube as the most versatile product of the entire collection. At will, seat, coffee table, pouf... always able to surprise and furnish urban, contract and hospitality environments and domestic outdoor living with the same ease. The tubes are light and resistant, capable of dissipating heat during the hottest seasons and not freezing in winter. For optimal performance all year round.
